1. Qualitative Information for the Period under Review

(1) Business Performance

[Overview of the Period under Review]

During the first six months of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017, the Japanese economy showed signs of a modest recovery, and while consumer spending has steadied, it is still somewhat lackluster. Meanwhile, global economic uncertainty continues due to economic slowdown in China and other emerging markets, the exit of the United Kingdom from the EU and other issues.

Under these conditions, the Group launched initiatives under a new medium-term management plan, dubbed “NNI-120 II,” first announced in May 2015 and scheduled to conclude in fiscal 2021 (year ending March 31, 2021). Together with an emphasis on restructuring the earnings foundation in core businesses, the Group is aiming for solid profit growth through self-sustained business growth, including that of acquired businesses, and new strategic investments, while taking a more proactive stance to shareholder returns. In September of this year, for the purposes of reallocating the business portfolio, which is a key challenge in the new medium-term management plan, the Group transferred all of its shares of Daisen Ham Co., Ltd. (a consolidated subsidiary).

The Group took steps to aggressively launch and expand sales of new products in each business in a bid to energize markets, and continued efforts to enhance cost competitiveness and strengthen its business structure both domestically and abroad. In the flour milling business, these efforts focused on consolidating production at large-scale plants located near ports, and in the processed food business on building an optimal production framework globally. Elsewhere, the Group pursued initiatives to boost brand value, primarily through sports sponsorship, and conducted advertising and promotional activities.

As a result, consolidated net sales for the first six months of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017, decreased 1.9% year on year to ¥271,259 million, despite results from the newly consolidated prepared dishes and other prepared foods subsidiary acquired in January 2016, mainly reflecting falling raw wheat prices and the effects of foreign currency exchange rates for overseas businesses against a strengthening yen. In terms of profits, while bran prices were weak, due to measures to improve profitability, including cost reduction efforts, and consolidated results from the new subsidiary, operating income was ¥11,495 million, up 10.5% year on year. Ordinary income increased by 10.3% to ¥14,121 million, and profit attributable to owners of parent rose by 21.6% to ¥10,147 million.

[Business Overview by Segment]

1) Flour Milling Segment

In the flour milling business, despite continued belt-tightening among consumers and a challenging market environment, shipments of commercial wheat flour in Japan matched the previous year due to aggressive sales expansion measures and progress in attracting new customers.

Also in July 2016, the Company revised its commercial wheat flour prices in response to the government’s decision to change the prices of five classes of imported wheat. On average, the Government’s price for imported wheat declined 7.1% in April 2016.

From the perspectives of production and distribution, we advanced measures to enhance productivity, notably by concentrating production at large-scale plants located near ports in Japan, and carried out measures to reduce fixed and other costs. We also completed construction to increase holding capacity by 25% at a raw wheat silo at the Tsurumi Plant in June 2016, and strengthened our structure for securing, storing and stably supplying raw wheat greater than ever before in response to demand. Also, in a first for food companies in Japan, the Tsurumi Plant was accredited with the new “(☒) JFS-E-C” certification for food safety management systems thanks to its strong promotion of food safety measures, among other efforts.

The price of bran, a byproduct of the milling process, was weaker throughout the period.

In the overseas business, sales were lower year on year, despite increased shipments overall thanks to aggressive sales expansion, mainly reflecting lower raw wheat prices and the effect of foreign currency exchange rates for overseas businesses against a strengthening yen. To meet growing demand on the west coast of North America, construction is moving forward to boost by 80% the production capacity of Canadian subsidiary Rogers Foods Ltd.'s Chilliwack Plant, located on the outskirts of Vancouver. The plant is scheduled to begin operations in autumn 2017, and is marking steady progress toward that goal. Furthermore, in October 2016, the Saginaw Plant (Texas) for Miller Milling Company, LLC made a decision to add a new line for an additional 70% in production capacity, which is slated for completion at the beginning of 2019.

As a result, net sales of the Flour Milling Segment decreased 9% year on year to ¥119,934 million. Operating income, meanwhile, rose 11.9% to ¥4,335 million.

※JFS-E-C

This is a new standard, related to food safety management systems developed in Japan, published in July 2016 by the Japan Food Safety Management Association (JFSM).

2) Processed Food Segment

In the processed food business, for household-use products, we expanded the lineup of our strong-selling bottle-type flour series designed to address needs arising from an increase in eating alone and demand for meals that are easy to prepare, and conducted sales promotion measures—most notably TV commercials—among other proactive initiatives designed to stimulate consumption. In commercial-use products, we launched new products tailored to customer needs and aggressively carried out proposal activities geared toward garnering new customers. In the prepared dishes and other prepared foods business, we have developed and are steadily expanding a comprehensive prepared foods business that can provide wide-ranging categories of products. As a result, sales in the processed food business were higher overall compared to a year earlier despite continued belt-tightening among consumers. This outcome reflected the impact of brisk growth in shipments of household-use prepared mixes, pastas, prepared dishes and other prepared foods, as well as benefits from the consolidation of Joyous Foods Co., Ltd. in January 2016.

Also, in response to lower prices for commercial wheat flour due to the government's decision to revise the prices of imported wheat, the Company in August 2016 revised prices for its household-use wheat flour and commercial prepared mix products.

In the overseas business, sales were lower as competition in the Southeast Asian market intensified. Elsewhere, operations are running smoothly at a production plant for pasta sauces and other cooked and processed foods in Vietnam and a pasta plant in Turkey. Both sites were built as part of efforts to develop a globally optimized, cost-competitive production framework.

In the yeast and biotechnology business, sales were on a par with the previous year.

In the healthcare foods business, sales were lower year on year, reflecting sluggish shipments of raw materials for pharmaceuticals, despite brisk sales of consumer products driven by promotion of marketing measures.

As a result, net sales of the Processed Food Segment increased 6.0% from the same period of the previous fiscal year to ¥130,327 million. Operating income increased 7.7% to ¥5,889 million.

3) Others Segment

In the pet food business, shipments mainly of JP Style brand and other premium pet food were brisk chiefly due to sales promotion measures including the aggressive launch of new products and TV commercials and campaigns, resulting in higher sales compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year.

In the engineering business, sales decreased year on year, mainly due to struggling growth in orders for projects in the mainstay plant engineering business.

In the mesh cloths business, sales were down from last year, reflecting sluggishness for screen printing materials.

As a result, net sales of the Others Segment decreased 3.2% to ¥20,997 million, and operating income increased 7% to ¥1,114 million.

(2) Financial Position

The status of assets, liabilities and net assets on a consolidated basis at the end of the period under review was as follows.

Current assets decreased ¥7,020 million from the previous fiscal year-end to ¥226,378 million, due largely to an increase in cash and deposits, and decreases in notes and accounts receivable – trade and short-term investment securities, etc. Noncurrent assets decreased ¥10,006 million to ¥306,900 million, primarily due to decreases in property, plant and equipment and intangible assets. As a result, total assets decreased ¥17,027 million from the previous fiscal year-end to ¥533,278 million. Meanwhile, current liabilities shrank ¥17,432 million to ¥89,370 million, mainly reflecting decreases in notes and accounts payable – trade and short-term loans payable. Noncurrent liabilities increased ¥434 million to ¥57,452 million. As a result, total liabilities declined ¥16,997 million from the previous fiscal year-end to ¥146,822 million. Net assets decreased ¥29 million to ¥386,455 million, including an increase due to profit attributable to owners of parent for the period, a decrease due to the payment of dividends and a decrease in accumulated other comprehensive income.

The Company's consolidated cash flows for the period under review were as follows.

Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities

An increase in cash and cash equivalents mainly due to profit before income taxes of ¥16,569 million and depreciation and amortization of ¥8,062 million surpassed a decrease in cash and cash equivalents from factors such as the payment of income taxes. This led to net cash provided by operating activities of ¥14,647 million for the period under review.

Net cash provided by (used in) investing activities

¥7,117 million was used for the purchase of property, plant, and equipment and intangible assets, but proceeds from repayment and maturity of time deposits with terms exceeding three months and short-term investment securities exceeded payments and purchases for these items by ¥1,443 million, and in addition, there were increases in cash and cash equivalents through revenue of ¥3,097 million from the sale of subsidiary shares and ¥2,713 million from proceeds from redemption of stocks of subsidiaries and affiliates, leading to net cash provided by investing activities of ¥1,551 million.

Adding net cash provided by investing activities to net cash provided by operating activities, free cash flow came to an inflow of ¥16,198 million.

Net cash provided by (used in) financing activities

To distribute profits to shareholders, the Company paid dividends of ¥3,621 million. Additionally, repayment of short-term loans payable surpassed proceeds from short-term loans payable and long-term loans payable by ¥2,433 million, leading to net cash used in financing activities of ¥6,470 million.

As a result, consolidated cash and cash equivalents at the end of the second quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 increased ¥7,534 million from the previous year-end to ¥80,495 million. This was due in part to a reduction in funds stemming from the effect of exchange rate change on cash and cash equivalents.

(3) Forecast of Consolidated Business Results and Other Forward-looking Information

The Japanese economy is facing concerns over its future, including worsening performance among export-driven companies due to factors such as instability overseas and the yen's continuing appreciation. Similarly, the Group's business environment is projected to remain adverse due, in part, to the continued preference for lower-priced options among consumers in Japan. Under these circumstances, the Group will continue to fulfill our mission to secure the stable supply of safe and reliable wheat flour and other staple foods. Through steady implementation of strategies formulated under our new medium-term management plan, "NNI-120 II," we are committed to working in every business to develop new products and pursue advertising and other sales promotion measures designed from the customer's perspective, along with productivity enhancements and other cost-reduction efforts. At the same time, we will promote expansion in overseas business.

Furthermore, industries related to the Company are also likely to be impacted by negotiations for the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) trade agreement largely agreed upon in October 2015, which will require that we continue to pay close attention to trends and respond appropriately.

Also, the Company announced a revision of its commercial wheat flour prices in response to the government's decision to lower the prices of five classes of imported wheat by 7.9% on average from October 2016.

Taking into account falling prices of raw wheat, foreign currency exchange rates for overseas businesses against a strengthening yen, and the deconsolidation of a subsidiary, consolidated net sales for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 are forecast to decline 3.9% year on year to ¥535,000 million. Despite weak bran prices, operating income is projected to climb 3.1% to ¥24,500 million due to improved profitability from cost reduction measures. Ordinary income is expected to increase 2.5% to ¥28,800 million, and profit attributable to owners of parent is expected to increase 9.3% year on year to ¥19,200 million. These forecasts have been revised from the initial projections released on May 12, 2016.

With respect to dividends, one of the basic policies of the new medium-term management plan is to maintain a payout ratio of at least 40% on a consolidated basis. Consequently, in line with initial projections, the Company plans to pay an interim dividend of ¥13, up ¥1 from the previous fiscal year, and a full-year dividend of ¥26 per share, up ¥2 from the previous fiscal year. This is set to result in an actual dividend increase for a fourth consecutive year.

2. Matters Concerning Summary Information (Notes)

(1) Changes in Important Subsidiaries during the Period under Review

[Changes in specified subsidiaries involving a change in the scope of consolidation]

There are no applicable matters to be reported.

However, while it is not considered a change in specified subsidiaries, the Company sold all of the shares of its former consolidated subsidiary Daisen Ham Co., Ltd., held by its consolidated subsidiaries, in September 2016, causing it to be excluded from the scope of consolidation.

(2) Adoption of Special Accounting Treatment for Preparing Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements

Tax expenses are calculated in accordance with Paragraph 12, “Method for Using the Statutory Effective Tax Rate,” of the Practical Guidelines on Tax-Effect Accounting for Preparation of Interim Financial Statements, pursuant to the provision of Paragraph 19 of the Guidance on the Accounting Standard for Quarterly Financial Reporting.

The amount of “Income taxes – deferred” is included in “Total income taxes.”

(3) Changes in Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Revisions Restated

[Changes in accounting policies]

In accordance with revisions to corporate tax law in Japan, the Company has applied the “Practical Solution on Accounting for Changes in Depreciation Method related to the 2016 Tax Law Reform” (PITF No. 32, June 17, 2016) from the first quarter of the current fiscal year. The subsequent result is a switch from the declining-balance method to the straight-line method for depreciation and amortization pertaining to equipment for buildings and structures purchased after April 1, 2016.

These monetary effects had a negligible impact on financial performance for the second quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017.

(4) Additional Information

[Changes in accounting period of consolidated subsidiary]

For more accurate disclosure in consolidated financial statements, from the first quarter of the current fiscal year, the fiscal accounting date of December 31 for consolidated subsidiary Joyous Foods Co., Ltd. has been changed to March 31.

In line with this decision, income/loss for the period beginning with the merger date for the subsidiary, January 29, 2016, through March 31, 2016 has been adjusted within changes in retained earnings, and changes in cash and cash equivalents are shown as “Changes in Cash and Cash Equivalents due to the Change in Fiscal Accounting Period for Consolidated Subsidiaries” in the Quarterly Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

[Implementation guidance on recoverability of deferred tax assets]

From the first quarter of the current fiscal year, the Company has applied the “Implementation Guidance on Recoverability of Deferred Tax Assets” (ASBJ Guidance No. 26, March 28, 2016).

[M&A Activity]

(Business Divestiture)

1. Summary of Business Divestiture

(1) Name of Receiver of Divested Business

Air Water Inc.

(2) Content of Divested Business

Daisen Ham Co., Ltd. (Business: Manufacturing and sales of processed meat products)

(3) Main Reason for Business Divestiture

The Group is taking several measures toward management challenges for a “restructured earnings foundation” that places emphasis on the bottom line as laid out in the new medium-term management plan “NNI-120 II” announced in May 2015, and is continuing to examine a restructuring of the business portfolio as one of those measures.

On this occasion, the Company transferred all shares of Daisen Ham Co., Ltd. held by its consolidated subsidiaries, Nisshin Foods Inc., Oriental Yeast Co., Ltd., and Nisshin Associates Inc. to Air Water Inc.

Agriculture and foods are key industries for Air Water Inc., which has as its subsidiary Saver SS Inc., a company engaged in the processed meat industry. Daisen Ham Co., Ltd. will become a key company within the Air Water Group, improving its value as a company and its outlook for sustainable growth into the future.

(4) Date of Divestiture

September 20, 2016

(5) Other Matters Concerning the Summary of Transaction, Including Legal Framework

Consideration for transfer of shares will be cash or other assets only.
