

Nexon Reveals Four Globally Anticipated Games at The Game Awards

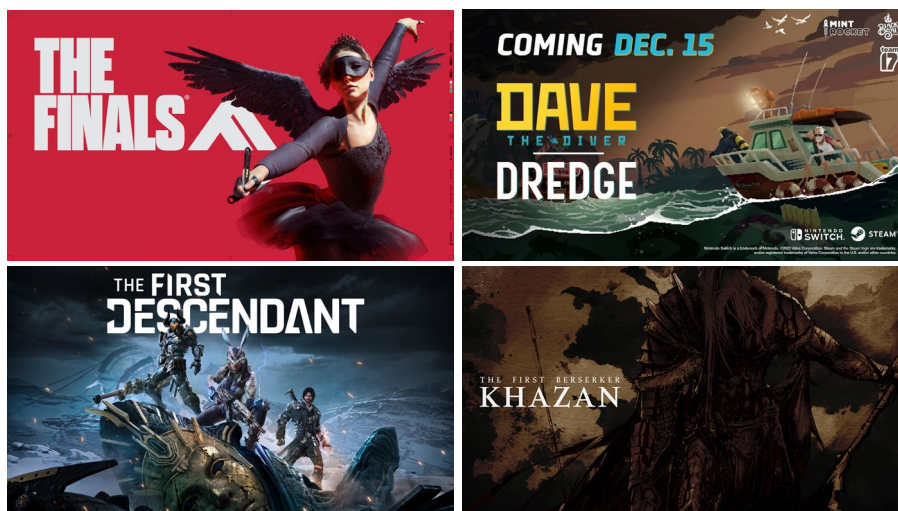

The First Descendant Scheduled to Launch in Summer 2024

DAVE THE DIVER Announces New Collaboration DLC Update

The First Berserker: Khazan Debut Trailer Released with Playable Footage

Surprise Launch of THE FINALS

TOKYO – December 12, 2023– NEXON Co., Ltd. (Nexon) (3659.TO), a global leader in Virtual Worlds, revealed details on four of its highly anticipated new titles at The Game Awards (TGA) held in Los Angeles on December 7.

The First Descendant posted a crowd-pleasing new trailer at TGA, which included an announcement that the game is scheduled for release in summer 2024. With nearly two million global players participating in a recent beta test, The First Descendant is positioned as the next great looter-shooter and will be released simultaneously on Steam, PlayStation, and Xbox.

The First Berserker: Khazan, previously named as Arad Chronicle: Khazan, made its global debut with a trailer highlighting the story of Khazan, an exiled warlord accused of treason. The action RPG is being developed for PC and consoles. Players will experience intense action in elaborate battles and counterattacks while dodging monsters.

DAVE THE DIVER posted a new trailer to reveal plans for a downloadable-content update. The new DLC will be available on December 15 and feature a collaboration with a fishing adventure game DREDGE from Black Salt Games.

THE FINALS, developed by Nexon's Embark Studios, surprised audiences at The Game Awards with an announcement that the game would be available that same day on December 7. After ranking on Steam as one of the most anticipated new games of the year, THE FINALS is now available on Steam, Play Station 5, and Xbox Series XIS.
