[Supplemental Principle 4-11-3: Analysis and assessment regarding the effectiveness of the Board as a whole]

1. Method of Evaluation

Self-evaluation by questionnaire survey

Subjects	Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members (including Outside Officers)
Implementation period	February 2019
Evaluation items	1) The operation of the Board of Directors, 2) The composition of the Board of Directors, 3) Aggressive governance, 4) Defensive governance, 5) Provision of information, 6) General evaluation
Answer form	Points evaluation from 5 (satisfied) to 1 (not satisfied), and free comments
Evaluation method	Evaluation was conducted by the Board of Directors after analysis and verification of the survey results by Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members.

2. Outline of the Analysis and Evaluation Results

In the survey, all evaluation items scored 3.5 or more points, and it was confirmed that the effectiveness of the Board of Directors has generally been ensured.

Regarding the “diversity of the composition of the Board of Directors,” which was identified as an issue in the previous fiscal year, candidates for Directors were selected based on the policy that the Company aims to achieve diversity in terms of skills, experience, and way of thinking through the long-term internal development as well as external recruitment of candidates. As for the “opportunities for Directors to learn knowledge and skills,” which was also identified as an issue in the previous fiscal year, improvements have been recognized as a result of training provided to Directors as well as Operating Officers based on timely topics and case studies.

As a result of the latest questionnaire survey conducted during the fiscal year under review, “improvement in reporting content on key measures” and “establishment of opportunities for discussion on business risks” have been recognized as issues. The Board of Directors will endeavor to enhance the effectiveness of the Board of Directors and further strengthen corporate governance by continuing to address these matters systematically.

[Supplementary principles 4-14-2: Principles for Training of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members]

Principles for training of directors and audit & supervisory board members are listed in Chapter 5, Section 5, 3-(4) of the “Basic Policy for Corporate Governance” found on the company website.

[Principles 5-1 : Policies for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

The company shall designate a director in charge of IR and conduct IR activities to promote a constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors.

The company shall also report to the Board of Directors any opinions and requests from shareholders and investors collected through IR activities.

Specifically, the following activities are to be included in the company’s organizational structure.

- (1) Strengthening collaboration between the management of the IR department and other departments through the director responsible for IR.
- (2) Results briefings with securities analysts and institutional investors (quarterly).
- (3) Handling group meetings and individual meetings with major foreign and domestic individual investors.
- (4) Explanations to major investors regarding general shareholders’ meeting proposals.
- (5) Publishing consolidated reports to enhance the understanding of the company’s mid- and long-term value creation.
- (6) Conducting investigations of shareholder findings through external survey organizations.

Remuneration of directors for the period ending March 2019 (78th term) is as follows:
- Directors: 346,000,000yen (paid to 8 persons)
- Audit & Supervisory Board Members: 81,000,000 (paid to 4 persons)

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods	Established
--	-------------

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods	Update
--	------------------------

1. Policy to determine the remuneration paid to Corporate Officers
(1) The Company shall provide remuneration that emphasizes the linkage with financial results and medium- to long-term corporate value, to share the same value with shareholders.
(2) Remuneration shall be set at levels that can attract and retain excellent human resources with global competitiveness.
(3) Remuneration shall emphasize transparency and fairness to be able to fulfill accountability.

2. Process to determine remuneration paid to Corporate Officers and content of remuneration
In order to ensure the transparency and fairness of the process to determine remuneration for Officers, a Remuneration Committee has been established as an advisory panel to the Board of Directors.
The Remuneration Committee is composed of the President and CEO, Outside Directors, and an Audit & Supervisory Board Member and is chaired by an Independent Outside Director to ensure the objectivity of deliberations. It deliberates and reports on matters pertaining to remuneration for Officers such as remuneration policy, plan, calculation methods, and specific remuneration content of individual Officers.
After the Remuneration Committee has deliberated and reported, specific remunerations for Directors are deliberated at the Board of Directors meeting, and specific remunerations for Audit & Supervisory Board Members are discussed at the Audit & Supervisory Board meeting, within the limits of remunerations approved at the General Meeting of Shareholders, and with the amount of remunerations calculated based on rules and regulations established by the Company.

Composition of remuneration by position

Executive Directors	As Executive Directors are expected to achieve performance targets through business execution, their remuneration consists of “basic remuneration,” “performance-based bonus, ”and “stock compensation-type stock options.” If they achieve the targets underlying “performance-based bonus,” their remuneration will consist of 40% of basic remuneration, 40% of performance-based bonus, and 20% of stock remuneration.
Outside Directors	In the interest of maintaining independence, Outside Directors receive only “basic remuneration,” with no performance-based remuneration.
Audit & Supervisory Board Members	In the interest of promoting audits of legality, Audit & Supervisory Board Members receive only “basic remuneration.”

Remuneration structure

Type of remuneration	Remuneration item	Description	Form of payment
Basic remuneration	Fixed remuneration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Levels are determined in consideration of, among others, the economic climate and the growth potential of the Company. Fixed remuneration based on roles and responsibilities. 	Cash
Performance-based bonus	Performance-based remuneration (Single year)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Given the responsibility of Executive Directors for meeting Group performance targets each year, consolidated profit is chosen as the relevant performance indicator to establish a clearer linkage between factor contributing to the enhancement of corporate/shareholder value and remuneration. The amount of bonus for each position and rank is determined based on annual performance for the range of consolidated profit from zero yen (¥0) to the target amount set forth in the Medium-term Management Plan. The amount of bonus for individual Directors is determined by multiplying the bonus amount for each position/rank by evaluation factor, which is determined based on performance evaluation of the business units in their charge and evaluation of strategic behavior on an individual basis. This is designed to raise motivation for the execution of business strategies. 	Cash
Stock compensation-type stock options	Stock remuneration (Medium- to long-term)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introduced as an incentive toward medium- to long-term enhancement of corporate value, and to nurture shared value with shareholders and Directors’ awareness to stock price. The number of share acquisition rights granted to each Director is determined based on his or her position and rank. 	Shares (Share acquisition rights)

- (1) The Company has adopted an Audit & Supervisory Board Members system. The Audit & Supervisory Board meeting is held monthly, in principle.
- (2) The Audit & Supervisory Board shall be composed of not more than five (5) Audit & Supervisory Board Members, a majority of whom shall be Independent Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members. The Company elects persons who have adequate experience and skills as well as sufficient knowledge of finance, accounting, and legal affairs as Audit & Supervisory Board Members to ensure the effectiveness of audits.
- (3) To raise the effectiveness of audits, each Audit & Supervisory Board Member attends Board of Directors meetings and attends meetings related to the execution of business operations and other important meetings by sharing the tasks with each other. Moreover, Audit & Supervisory Board Members strive to strengthen the auditing system through frequent communications with the Accounting Auditors and the internal audit department by meeting regularly, witnessing accounting audits as observers and conducting joint audits with the internal audit department.
- (4) The Audit & Supervisory Board has its own dedicated staff to conduct highly effective auditing operations such as information communications and data management.

6. Voluntary advisory panels

- (1) The Nomination Committee is composed of the President and Chief Executive Officer, Outside Directors, and an Audit & Supervisory Board Member and is chaired by an Independent Outside Director to ensure the objectivity of deliberation. The Nomination Committee deliberates on, among others, the nomination of candidates for Officer (including candidates for reappointment), any proposal for dismissal of Officers including the President and Chief Executive Officer, any proposal for the selection of a rank for or dismissal of each Operating Officer, and disciplinary matters based on the "Officer Appointment and Dismissal Standards" and reports the deliberation results to the Board of Directors. The consent of the Audit & Supervisory Board is obtained in advance for the nomination of a candidate for Audit & Supervisory Board Member or the dismissal of an Audit & Supervisory Board Member.
- (2) The Remuneration Committee is composed of the President and Chief Executive Officer, Outside Directors, and an Audit & Supervisory Board Member and is chaired by an Independent Outside Director to ensure the objectivity of deliberation. The Remuneration Committee deliberates on remuneration plans and amounts of Directors and Operating Officers and reports the deliberation results to the Board of Directors. Remuneration for Directors (excluding Outside Directors) and Operating Officers of the Company consists of "basic remuneration," "performance-based bonus," and "stock compensation-type stock options" under a remuneration system that takes into consideration performance-based incentives.

7. General policy regarding the roles and election of Outside Corporate Officers

- (1) In electing Outside Directors, to ensure transparency in the authority of management oversight, the Company has established rigorous "Standards for the Independence of Outside Directors/Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members" as requirements for their appointment referencing, and making it more rigorous than, other standards for independence established by financial instrument exchanges and organizations advising the exercise of voting rights, including the “Securities Listing Regulations” set forth by the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

- (2) The two (2) Outside Directors meet the Company’s independency requirements. They make efforts to strengthen the supervisory capability of the Company and strive to strengthen objective management. Specifically, they fulfill a role that is important to the decision-making process and provide opinions from the perspective of either technical experts or shareholders independent of executive management, based on a broad view that leverages knowledge of corporate legal affairs and the experience of corporate managers.
- (3) The two (2) Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members meet the Company’s independency requirements. They cooperate with each other to monitor the status of internal control of operations on a daily basis. Specifically, they are responsible for investigating and verifying whether the Directors’ duties are legally conducted in compliance with the relevant laws. In addition to possessing technical and practical knowledge of their own in the fields of law and accounting, they objectively monitor the execution of duties by Directors.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

The Company is a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board and established organizations: Board of Directors, Audit & Supervisory Board and the Accounting Auditors. In addition, the Company has adopted a corporate governance structure under which all the Outside Directors and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members are designated as Independent Officers for whom there is no possibility of conflicts of interest with general shareholders. Consequently, the Outside Directors and Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members work closely with the Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the internal audit department, thereby enabling the effective utilization of the Audit & Supervisory Board Members’ functions and enhancing the authority of management oversight.
