3. Reason for the revision

The Company places the stable profit return to shareholders as one of the most important management issues, and before providing dividends, we comprehensively assess the profit conditions and the dividend payout ratio, and also consider the improvement of the financial conditions, prior investment for technical innovation and business development, and retained earnings.

Based on the above basic policy, and taking into consideration the forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2015 announced in the Summary of Consolidated Financial Statements that was released today, we plan to increase the amount of annual dividends by 10 yen per share to 110 yen per share, and we have decided to pay interim dividends of 55 yen per share.
